

Mathematics

Six mathematics credits are required for students to graduate. If a student is considering a four year college or university eight credits or four years of mathematics is highly recommended. Students should strive to complete two years of algebra and one year of geometry.

Typically 9th grade students enter in one of the blue boxes. Depending on a student's previous mathematics experience there are additional options available.

