

Students receive the support they need to discover their strengths and plan for the future.

Students gain good study skills and work habits.

Because of a Professional School Counselor..

Professional School Counselors are leaders in education and advocacy for academic success, personal- social development, and career education for all students.

Students learn social and personal skills that help them to be successful both in and out of school.

Students feel comfortable and capable at school.

