- From the next screen, upload your corresponding documentation. Common forms of documentation include:
 - The Explanation of Benefits (EOB) statement returned to you from the insurance carrier indicating the amount for which you are responsible
 - Copay receipts if you are covered under a managed care or prescription drug plan
 - If there is no insurance for the health care expenses, submit an itemized bill with the following:
 - Name of the provider and patient
 - Service cost, date, and description
 - Notation when there is no coverage
- Once uploaded, click Next

Submitting Recurring Premium Claims

- From the homepage, select Submit a Claim from the I Want To section

- Next, select Premiums from the Pay From dropdown. Note: Only premiums can be set up for recurring reimbursements.
- Select Me from the Pay To dropdown.
- Click Next

A screenshot of a web form titled 'Create Reimbursement'. The form has a header with the title and a '* Required' indicator. Below the header is a paragraph of text: 'For quickest reimbursement, submit one claim at a time. Including several expenses within the same claim submission may extend your reimbursement processing time.' The main part of the form contains two dropdown menus. The first is labeled 'Pay From *' and has 'Premiums' selected. The second is labeled 'Pay To * ?' and has 'Me' selected. Below these dropdowns is a line of text: 'Based on your selection, you will be requesting a Claim Reimbursement.' At the bottom of the form, there are two buttons: 'Cancel' on the left and 'Next' on the right. The entire form area is enclosed in a red rectangular box.

- From the next screen, upload your corresponding documentation. You can substantiate your claim with a Premium Notice, such as a bill or letter from the insurance company, which includes the following:
 - The premium amount
 - The effective date of coverage
 - Name of the person insured - this will be you, your spouse, or a qualifying dependent
 - If you are requesting reimbursement of a long-term care premium, you must also provide proof of payment (in addition to the items listed above.)

- Once uploaded, click Next

Adding Documentation to a Submitted Claim

- If you've already submitted a claim that needs additional documentation, or you have a debit card transaction that requires documentation, you can easily upload the files to the corresponding expense.
- From the homepage, click the link under Tasks, which informs you that a receipt(s) is needed to approve your claim.

The screenshot shows the MidAmerica website homepage. At the top is the MidAmerica logo. Below it is a navigation bar with links for Home, Accounts, Tools & Support, and Message Center (with a notification badge of 5). The main content area features a hero banner with the text "Take control of your health care spending." and an image of a woman using a laptop. Below the banner is a section titled "I Want To:" with three buttons: "Submit a Claim", "Manage My Expenses", and "View Plan Activity". Underneath is a "Tasks" section with a notification badge of 2. A red box highlights a notification that says "2 receipt(s) needed to approve your claims" with a yellow question mark icon.

- From the next screen, you will see the transactions that require documentation for substantiation.
- Click Upload to the far right of your screen for the first transaction listed.
